

Emerging Business Background Checks

Managing Risk is Good Business

Welcome to our background screening program with First Advantage. Screening all workers is a standard best practice across nearly every industry and for good reason. Industry research shows that 95 percent of companies surveyed perform one or more types of background checks, with the top reasons five being:

- Protect employees and customers
- Improve the quality of work
- Mandated by law or compliance with regulations
- Protect brand/reputation
- Prevent internal theft, fraud, etc.¹

It's Easy with First Advantage XtdForce™

We work with First Advantage because of their industry-leading background screening capabilities, advanced processing technology and personalized support.
